2015_05 — Sandra Cisneros

Sandra Cisneros has a fondness for animals and this little gem of a story makes that abundantly clear. "La casa azul," the cobalt blue residence of Mister and Missus Rivera, overflows with hairless dogs, monkeys, a fawn, a "passionate" Guacamaya macaw, tarantulas, an iguana, and rescues that resemble "ancient Olmec pottery."

Sandra Cisneros should be required reading for every high school student. She should also be required reading for every Chican@ and Mexican-American. While she is most known for House on Mango Street, I think Woman Hollering Creek is where she really shines with the depth of her characters, even in the "limited" environment of short stories.
